MASTER OF ARTS IN COUNSELING PSYCHOLOGY ARTICULATION AGREEMENT BETWEEN REGIS COLLEGE AND STONEHILL COLLEGE

Regis College, 235 Wellesley Street, Weston, MA 02493 ("Regis") and Stonehill College, 320 Washington Street, Easton, MA 02357 ("Stonehill") do hereby enter into this Articulation Agreement ("Agreement") on the date that this Agreement is signed by the authorized administrative representatives of both institutions.

1. The purpose of this Agreement is to foster a spirit of cooperation between these two educational institutions with a similar liberal arts focus and Catholic tradition. This Agreement will facilitate qualified Stonehill students in their application to, admission to, and completion of the Regis Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology ("Counseling Psychology") program.

2. This Agreement applies to qualified Stonehill students who graduate through May 2017. Qualified students who are admitted to the Counseling Psychology program in their senior year under the terms of this Agreement may delay beginning the Counseling Psychology program for up to five (5) years and will remain eligible for the benefits contained herein.

3. Qualified Stonehill students must meet the following criteria:

i. Anticipated successful completion of a Bachelor’s degree from Stonehill in May of their senior year;
   ii. A minimum overall Grade Point Average ("GPA") of 3.00 at Stonehill;
   iii. Completion of the following four (4) prerequisite courses at Stonehill with a grade of “B” or higher in each course:
      a. PSY 101 General Psychology
      b. PSY 201 Developmental Psychology I
      c. PSY 207 Abnormal Psychology
      d. PSY 261 Introduction to Statistics
   iv. Submission of all Counseling Psychology application materials by the published Regis deadline for entry into the term beginning the next fall after their senior year at Stonehill. The application may be completed online at: http://www.regiscollege.edu/graduate_programs/apply_now.cfm

4. Stonehill students who do not meet the qualifications contained herein may apply for admission to the Counseling Psychology program via the standard process.

5. Regarding the Counseling Psychology program, qualified graduating Stonehill students are eligible for:

i. A waiver of the application fee;
   ii. A waiver of the Graduate Record Exam ("GRE") or Miller Analogies Test ("MAT") requirement;
   iii. Preferred admission into the Counseling Psychology without the competition of the rest of the applicant pool;
   iv. Six (6) credits applied to the Counseling Psychology degree dependent upon completion of two (2) Stonehill undergraduate courses from the below list of “Accepted Stonehill College Transfer Eligible Courses” with a grade of “B” or higher. The Counseling Psychology Graduate Program Director will determine for which two (2) Counseling Psychology courses the qualified student will receive transfer credit.

Accepted Stonehill College Transfer Eligible Courses

- PSY 421: Psychology And The Legal System
- PSY 342: Research Methods In Developmental Psychology
- PSY 262: Intermediate Statistics
- PSY 320: Introduction To Health Psychology
- PSY 315: Psychology Of Women
- PSY 351: Child Psychopathology & Treatment

6. Potential applicants should be referred to the Counseling Psychology webpage (http://www.regiscollege.edu/academics/mstrs-department.cfm?id=ma-counseling-psychology) or the Regis College Office of Graduate Admission (781.768.7330). Individuals with questions about the Counseling Psychology curriculum or degree should contact the Counseling Psychology Graduate Program Director by e-mail at graduatedepartment@regiscollege.edu.

7. Official transcripts should be submitted directly to the Regis College Office of Graduate Admission, 235 Wellesley Street, Weston, MA 02493.

8. A designated Stonehill faculty member will provide the names of qualified students to the Counseling Psychology Graduate Program Director before the recommended application deadline. It will be the responsibility of Stonehill to work cooperatively with Regis to promote the Counseling Psychology program to potentially eligible Stonehill students. Stonehill should make efforts to inform appropriate academic and administrative personnel and students about this opportunity. Communication would include inserting information about this Agreement in appropriate program materials, and verbal, written or electronic notification to students on a timely and regular basis. Additionally, a representative of the Counseling Psychology program will make periodic visits to Stonchill to present to and speak with potential applicants about the program and this Agreement.

9. The parties recognize and acknowledge that all rights and goodwill in their respective trademarks and other intellectual property are the exclusive property of their separate organizations. Except as set forth above, the parties agree not to use the other’s name or other trademarks in advertising, marketing or other materials without the prior written permission of the other.

10. It is agreed and understood that each party has the right and responsibility to make changes to its curricula and enrollment standards to maintain its academic integrity and meet accreditation standards. Such changes, if any, will be communicated in writing between the parties as they occur.

11. Regis and Stonehill will each adhere to its respective institution’s non-discrimination policy.

12. Designated Contact Persons: Notice to the parties shall be sent via regular and electronic mail to the following:
13. Dispute Resolution: In the event of a conflict or dispute pertaining to the terms of this Agreement, the parties agree to use their best efforts to resolve their differences in good faith.

14. Indemnification: Each party hereby agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the other party against all losses, damages, liabilities and other expenses of every kind and nature, including reasonable attorney’s fees, sustained by or incurred by the other party as a result of any debts, actions, causes of action, claims, suits, liabilities, obligations or damages whatsoever resulting from the indemnifying party’s (i) breach or default under this Agreement; or (ii) the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the indemnifying party arising pursuant to this Agreement. The indemnifying party shall consult with the notifying party before making any agreement to settle or compromise a claim under this provision, and the notifying party shall have authority to veto any settlement or compromise that adversely affects its reputation or financial position. The right to indemnification set forth herein shall be in addition to and not derogation of any other rights contained in this Agreement.

15. Duration and Termination of the Agreement: This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement and understanding between Regis and Stonehill with respect to its subject matter. This Agreement becomes effective on the date that it is signed by the authorized administrative representatives of both institutions and is valid until June 1, 2017. No prior or contemporaneous agreement or understanding will be effective.

Each party will evaluate, determine, and notify the other party no later than June 1, 2016 as to whether or not a renewal of this Agreement is desired.

Either party may terminate this Agreement upon written notice to the other party at least ninety (90) days prior to the entrance of the next class of Counseling Psychology students, and any such termination shall not affect students who have applications pending or have already been accepted into the Counseling Psychology program. Termination shall be without penalty. If this Agreement is terminated, neither Stonehill or Regis shall be liable to the other for any monetary or other losses that may result.

16. Amendment of the Agreement: Either party may take the initiative to amend this Agreement by submitting suggestions in writing to the designated Contact Person. No addition, modification, or deletion of this Agreement shall be valid unless reduced to writing and signed by authorized administrative representatives of both institutions. The amended Agreement will become effective when signed by the authorized administrative representatives of each institution.

17. Regis and Stonehill acknowledge that the individuals authorized to receive notice are not authorized to change the terms of this Agreement.

18. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, without regard to its conflict of law principles.
